I've seen Dr Vitt a few times for yearly general checkups and despite our few and far between interactions he always takes the time to ask about my life and hobbies. Really friendly and efficient, addresses all of my questions and issues.

Dr. Vitt is fantastic. He is very knowledgeable about domestic and foreign diseases. I initially went to him because I was going to travel to Southeast Asia and need vaccinations. Now I go to him for anything. I hate injections, but he is a true expert and makes the process as comfortable as possible. He is the one with you the entire time so you feel personally taken care of.

Although I liked him as a doctor on a subsequent visit for a vaccination I was charged a consultation fee because we discussed another issue. While I understand that this is his policy I felt duped because he was the one who brought up the other issue and asked me questions pertaining to it. Also the front desk staff are so passive aggressive it can be infuriating. Everything must be done on line which is quite frankly easier for them but a pain for me.

Dr. Vitt is the best doctor that I have ever had, hands down THE BEST! - I truly feel that he cares about me and my well being. In the past, I have had docs that just write me meds and that is it! - I see Dr. V every three months. I never have to wait. Anytime I call the office I only have to give my first name because his entire staff knows me. I used to hate going to the doctor, it always seemed so clinical and like a hassle. Dr. Vitt is makes me care about myself more too :)

They do require a credit card on file in case you miss your appointment or if you cancel last minute, but this is only to ensure that they don't overbook and that patients keep their appointments. This also ensures that you will be seen at the time of your appointment. I was hesitant at first, but after my visit, I'm love this doctor. Great bedside manners, personable, informative, made me feel really comfortable.

I will just add to the list of rave reviews that Dr. Vitt has all over the internet. He was very personable and really listened to my concerns. I have seen him once and right away I felt that he was the right doctor for me. Personally I wanted to find a doctor who was a gay male (as I am). In the past I have had poor experiences with doctors who were straight, especially when talking about sexual health. But after reading reviews from other LGBT patients I decided to give him a try and I cant describe how comfortable Dr. Vitt made me right away. I would reccomend him to anyone, especially those in the LGBT community who want a physician that is welcoming and knowledgable about those issues unique to our community. Cheers

Dr. Vitt, in a way I have never experienced in my life ever, had a manner about him that made my visit incredibly relaxed and non-stressful, and made me feel so completely at-ease. (I should note I'm one of those who tends to be on the nervous side for all doctor visits - regardless of reason.) His examination was thorough, his professionalism was top-notch, and yet he was able to carry-out the exam with such an accessible and sociable demeanor that evidenced his heightened care and attention to me as a person - not just a patient case file. His staff was very friendly as well. I shall never fear a doctor appointment again - so long as it is with the amazing Dr. Vitt!

As a gay man, it can be awkward at times to discuss other health related things that aren't typical for most patients. Dr. Vitt couldn't have made me feel any more comfortable. He was so relaxed and nonchalant and just talked to me about my health and things like any other patient. There was no shaming or awkward moments. I felt safe and well taken care of. Dr. Vitt is a heterosexual man who understands homosexual issues. He is disarming and understanding for homosexual issues—even if you try to explain that you don't use condoms, despite the risk. He has provided help on the fringe of homosexual conduct in the city—in my experience, giving me an immunization against encephalitis—and he makes me comfortable when I've had sex outside my exclusive relationship, without judgment. Dr. Vitt is a skilled healthcare professional, and I find myself significantly more comfortable with my life and choices at large than I ever have with any other doctor.

I needed to schedule a regular primary care appointment and Dr. Vitt had plenty of positive reviews. I didn't realize how awesome Dr. Vitt was until I went to the appointment. His background is fascinating (has traveled around the world, teaches at Columbia University, has studied HIV extensively) and he is very intelligent, which is evident in his treatment, questions, and recommendations. He is caring and the "family office" type of set up is evident in the type of care they provide. He will get on the phone to follow up and answer literally any question you might have, even when unrelated to primary care (I had to see a specialist for another issue). I would HIGHLY recommend going to see Dr. Vitt as I genuinely trust him as a primary care physician.

Dr Vitt is friendly and professional. Of all the doctors I've visited in my 4 years in the city, Vitt is by far the most punctual; In two visits, I've probably waited at most 2 minutes. He also discussed my needs thoroughly and explained things clearly to me. I think I've finally found a good long term primary care doctor in Dr. Vitt.
